Debt Tracker

This worksheet is designed to help you track and manage your debt obligations.

When it comes to taking control of your personal finances, it's important to face your financial reality head on. This worksheet is designed to help you create a list of your regular repayments, so you know where you stand and are back in control.

Use the headings below to capture as much information as you can about your debt repayments. Include everything, no matter how much or little you owe – your mortgage, car finance, credit cards, personal loans and any other outstanding debts. When you've completed as much as you can, add up each column, and use your list to help you prioritise your debts and see if you could afford to pay more.

Account Name	Outstanding Balance (£)	Interest Rate (%)	Regular Repayment Date	Minimum Amount Due (£)	Amount I Pay (£)
The name of the bank or lender.	In total, how much do you owe?	How much interest do you pay? You should be able to find this on your monthly statement.	What date do you usually make repayments? If you repay more than once a month, give all dates.	What is the minimum amount you must pay each month to avoid penalties?	In total, how much do you pay towards the balance of this debt with each repayment?
